

David joined as winemaker for Faust in early 2016. Known amongst his colleagues for his passion for excellence, attention to detail and high standards – yet someone you’d still want to have a beer or three with – David was the perfect fit for the team at Faust. Believing great winemaking starts in the vineyard, David works closely with Nicole Hayden, Vineyard Director, to create partnerships with the best growers in the Napa Valley. He brings a wealth of knowledge from 20 years working in the wine industry including experience with wines like Harlan, Joseph Phelps, The Prisoner.
